

INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM REVIEW

It shall be the responsibility of each college to conduct instructional program reviews of all credit and non-credit programs to determine how well they are achieving their objectives and if changes are needed. These reviews are to be conducted, as required by state regulations and accreditation standards, for both CTE and non-CTE programs, and will be used to ensure that programs are following state guidelines and for college planning.

Program review reports shall be maintained at each college.

References;

Title 5 California Code of Regulations, Sections 51022, 55130(d)

California Education Code, Section 78016

Accreditation Standard II, A.11, B.9

Adopted: 2-04-92
Revised: 8-30-99
Revised: 6-14-12
Revised: 10-26-15