The written notice may be dispensed with as to any director who, at or prior to the time the meeting convenes, files with the secretary a written waiver of notice or who is actually present at the meeting when it convenes. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 6. Quorum and Manner of Acting. A majority of the total number of directors in office shall constitute a quorum of the board of directors for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the board of directors, subject to the more stringent provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, including, without limitation, those provisions relating to (a) approval of contracts or transactions in which a director has a direct or indirect material financial interest, (b) approval of certain transactions between corporations having common directorships, (c) creation of and appointments to committees of the Board, and (d) indemnification of directors. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of a director or directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting.

Section 7. Adjournment and Notice of Adjourned Meeting. Notwithstanding Section 6, above, a majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given unless the original meeting is adjourned for more than 24 hours. If the original meeting is adjourned for more than 24 hours, notice of any adjournment to another time and place shall be given, before the time of the adjourned meeting, to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

Section 8. Minutes of Meetings and Conduct. Regular minutes of the proceedings of the board of directors shall be kept in a book provided for that purpose. The board of directors may adopt its own rules of procedure insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with, or in conflict with, these bylaws, the articles of incorporation of the Foundation or with the law.

Section 9. Brown Act. Board meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the Ralph M. Brown Act, commencing at section 54950 et seq. of the Government Code.

ARTICLE VI

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the Foundation shall be a president, a secretary and a chief financial officer. The President shall be the Vice Chancellor, Business Services of the District and shall hold their office as an ex-officio of the District. The Secretary shall be the District Chief Communications Officer and shall hold their office as an ex-officio of the District. The Chief Financial Officer shall be the Executive Director of Fiscal Services and shall hold their office as an ex-officio of the District. The Foundation may also have, at the discretion of the board of directors, a chairperson of the board, one or more vice presidents, one or more assistant secretaries, one or more assistant chief financial officers, and such other officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of this Article VI. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except that neither the secretary nor the chief financial officer may serve concurrently as either the president or the chairperson of the board.

Section 2. Election. The officers of the Foundation, except for any ex-officio officers and such officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of this Article, shall be elected by the board of directors, and each shall serve for a one (1) year term at the pleasure of the board, subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under any contract of employment.

Section 3. Other Officers. The board of directors may appoint and may authorize the president or other officers to appoint such other officers as the business of the Foundation may require, including an executive director to manage the day-to-day actions of the Foundation. Each officer so appointed shall hold office for such period and have such authority and perform such duties as are provided in these bylaws or as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

Section 4. Removal of Officers. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause or notice, by the board of directors. Subordinate officers appointed by persons other than the Board under Section 3 of this Article VI may be removed at any time, with or without cause or notice, by the board of directors or by the officer by whom appointed. Officers may be employed for a specified term under a contract of employment if authorized by the board of directors; such officers may be removed from office at any time under this section and shall have no claim against the Foundation or individual officers or board members because of the removal except any right to monetary compensation to which the officer may be entitled under the contract of employment.

Section 5. Resignation of Officers. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Foundation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified in such notice; and, unless otherwise specified in such notice, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any such resignation is without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the Foundation under any contract to which the officer is a party.

Section 6. Vacancies in Office. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these bylaws for regular appointments to such office.

Section 7. Responsibilities of Officers.

- (a) Chairperson of the Board. The chairperson of the board, if such an officer be elected, shall, if present, preside at all meetings of the board of directors and exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may be from time to time assigned to them by the board of directors or prescribed by the bylaws. If there is no president, the chairperson of the board shall in addition be the chief executive officer of the Foundation and shall have the powers and duties of the president as prescribed in these bylaws.
- (b) President/Chief Executive Officer. Subject to such supervisory powers, if any, as may be given by the board of directors to the chairperson of the board, if there be such an officer, the president shall be the chief executive officer of the Foundation and shall, subject to the control of the board of directors, have general supervision, direction and control of the activities and the officers of the Foundation. They shall preside, in the absence of the chairperson of the board or if there be none, at all meetings of the board of directors. They shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of president of a Foundation, and shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors or these bylaws.
- (c) Vice President. In the absence or disability of the president, the vice presidents, if any, in order of their rank as fixed by the board of directors or, if not ranked, a vice president designated by the board of directors, shall perform all the duties of the president. When so acting, a vice president shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the president. The vice presidents shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed for them respectively by the board of directors or the bylaws, the president or the chairperson of the board.
- (d) Secretary.

- (1) Minutes. The secretary shall keep or cause to be kept, at the principal executive office or such other place as the board of directors may order, a book of minutes of all meetings, proceedings and actions of directors and committees of directors. The minutes of each meeting shall state the time and place the meeting was held; whether it was annual, regular or special; if special, how it was called or authorized; the names of those present at board and committee meetings; and an accurate account of the proceedings. If the secretary is unable to be present, the secretary or the presiding officer of the meeting shall designate another person to take the minutes of the meeting. The secretary shall keep or cause to be kept, at the principal office in California, a copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws, as amended to date.
 - (2) Notices, Seal, and Other Duties. The secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the members, the board of directors and committees of the board of directors required by these bylaws to be given. In case of the absence or disability of the secretary, or their refusal or neglect to act, such notices may be provided by the president, or by the vice president, if any, or by any person authorized by the president or by any vice president, or by the board of directors. The secretary shall keep the corporate seal, if any, in safe custody and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as the board or the bylaws may prescribe.
- (e) Chief Financial Officer.
- (1) Books of Account. The chief financial officer shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct books and records of account of the properties and transactions of the Foundation. The chief financial officer shall send or cause to be given to the directors such financial statements and reports as are required to be given by law, by these bylaws or by the board. The books of account shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any director.
 - (2) Deposit and Disbursement of Money. The chief financial officer shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, all moneys and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the Foundation with such depositories as may be designated by the board of directors. They shall disburse the funds of the Foundation as may be ordered by the board of directors, shall render to the president and directors, whenever they request it, an account of all of their transactions as chief financial officer and of the financial condition of the Foundation, and shall have other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors or the bylaws. If so required by the board of directors, the chief financial officer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of their duties in such sum and with such surety as the board of directors shall deem appropriate. The chief financial officer shall submit such annual reports to the board of directors as required by law or as directed by the board of directors.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHER AGENTS

Section 1. Right of Indemnity. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Foundation shall indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and other persons described in Section 5238(a) of the California Corporations Code, including persons formerly occupying any such position, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any "proceeding," as that term is used in that Section, and including an action by or in the right of the Foundation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that Section. "Expenses," as used in these bylaws, shall have the same meaning as in Section 5238(a) of the California Corporations Code.

Section 2. Approval of Indemnity. On written request to the board by any person seeking indemnification under Section 5238(b) or Section 5238(c) of the California Corporations Code, the board shall promptly determine under Section 5238(e) of the California Corporations Code whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 5238(b) or Section 5238(c) has been met and, if so, the board shall authorize indemnification.

Section 3. Advancement of Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under these bylaws in defending any proceeding covered by those Sections shall be advanced by the Foundation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the Foundation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the Foundation for those expenses.

Section 4. Insurance. The board shall have the right to authorize and direct the officers of the Foundation to cause the Foundation to purchase and maintain insurance to the full extent permitted by law on behalf of its officers, directors, employees, and other agents, against any liability asserted against or incurred by any officer, director, employee, or agent in such capacity or arising out of the officer's, director's employee's or agent's status as such.

ARTICLE VIII

RECORDS AND REPORTS

Section 1. Maintenance of Corporate Records. The board shall cause the appropriate officers of the Foundation to keep:

- (a) Adequate and correct books and records of account;
- (b) Written minutes of the proceedings of the board and committees of the board; and

- (c) A record of each director's name and address.

Section 2. Maintenance and Inspection of Articles and Bylaws. The secretary shall keep at the Foundation's principal office the original or a copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws as amended to date.

Section 3. Annual Review or Audit. The board of directors shall cause an annual fiscal review or audit of the Foundation to be conducted by an independent certified public accountant. This annual review or audit may, but need not, be conducted as part of a fiscal audit of the District. The annual review or audit will include a review of the internal control structure of the Foundation. The auditors will also issue a separate report of findings, if there are findings noted during the review of internal control and performance of audit procedures. Such report will also include recommendations related to those findings. Copies of the annual review or audit report and management letter comments shall be submitted to the District within thirty (30) days after it is received by the Foundation. The Foundation shall annually publish the reviewed or audited statement of its financial condition. The statement shall be disseminated as widely as feasible and be available to any person on request and in accordance with the publication. A reasonable fee may be charged to cover the costs of providing such copies.

Section 4. Annual Report. The board shall cause an annual report to be sent to directors within 120 days after the end of the Foundation's fiscal year. That report shall contain the following information, in appropriate detail, for the fiscal year:

- (a) The assets and liabilities, including the trust funds, of the Foundation as of the end of the fiscal year;
- (b) The principal changes in assets and liabilities, including trust funds;
- (c) The revenue or receipts of the Foundation, both unrestricted and restricted to particular purposes;
- (d) The expenses or disbursements of the Foundation for both general and restricted purposes; and
- (e) Any other information required by these bylaws.
- (f) If the statements of activities and statements of financial position referred to in this section have not been audited, they shall be accompanied by the report of any independent accountants engaged by the Foundation or the certificate of an authorized officer of the Foundation that such financial statements were prepared without audit from the books and records of the Foundation.
- (g) This requirement of an annual report shall not apply if the Foundation receives less than $25,000 in gross receipts during the fiscal year, provided, however, that the information specified above for inclusion in an annual report must be furnished to any director who requests it in writing.

Section 5. Annual Statement of Certain Transactions and Indemnifications. As part of the annual report to all directors, or as a separate document if no annual report is issued, the board shall cause to be annually prepared and mailed or delivered to each director a statement of any transaction or indemnification of the following kind within 120 days after the end of the Foundation's fiscal year:

- (a) Any transaction
 - i. in which the Foundation or its parent or subsidiary was a party,
 - ii. in which an "interested person" has a direct or indirect material financial interest, and
 - iii. which involved more than $50,000, or was one of a number of transactions with the same interested person involving, in the aggregate, more than $50,000.
- (b) Any indemnifications or advances aggregating more than $10,000 paid during the fiscal year to any officer or director of the Foundation under Article VII of these bylaws, unless that indemnification has already been approved by the directors under Section 5238(e) of the California Corporations Code.
- (c) For this purpose, an "interested person" is any director or officer of the Foundation, its parent or its subsidiary. The statement shall include a brief description of the transaction, the names of interested persons involved, their relationship to the Foundation, the nature of their interest in the transaction and, if practicable, the amount of that interest; provided that if the transaction was with a partnership in which the interested person is a partner, only the interest of the partnership need be stated.

ARTICLE IX

GENERAL CORPORATE MATTERS

Section 1. Checks, Drafts, and Evidences of Indebtedness. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of or payable to the Foundation shall be signed or endorsed by the chief financial officer and the president, or such other officers of the Foundation, and in such manner, as shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors.

Section 2. Contracts. The board of directors, except as the bylaws otherwise provided, may authorize any officer or officers or agent or agents to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Foundation. Such authority may be general or confined to one or more specific matters. Unless so authorized or ratified by the board of directors or within the agency power of an officer, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Foundation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or in any amount.

Section 3. Loans and Borrowing. The board of directors shall not cause the Foundation to make any loan of money or property to or guarantee the obligation of any director or officer unless approved by the Attorney General. No loan shall be contracted on behalf of the Foundation and no evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the board of directors.

Section 4. Deposits. All funds of the Foundation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Foundation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as the board of directors may select.

Section 4. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notices are required to be given under the provisions of the Nonprofit Corporation Act of the state of California, or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation of the Foundation, or these bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the persons entitled to such notice, whether dated before or after the time such notices are required to be given, to the extent permitted by law, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XI

AMENDMENT TO BYLAWS

Section 1. Amendment to Bylaws. These bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting of the board of directors by a majority vote of the board of directors; provided, however, that if any provision of these bylaws requires the vote of a larger proportion of the board than is otherwise required by law, that provision may not be altered, amended, or repealed except by that greater vote.
