Board of Trustees Resolution

Recognizing and Honoring February as Black History Month

Whereas, Black History Month is observed annually during the month of February to recognize, honor, and celebrate the significant contributions, achievements, resilience, and leadership of Black Americans throughout United States history; and

Whereas, the history and lived experiences of Black Americans are integral to the cultural, social, political, and economic fabric of the nation and have profoundly shaped higher education, civic engagement, civil rights, innovation, and community advancement; and

Whereas, community colleges play a critical role in advancing equity, access, inclusion, and educational opportunity, and in fostering environments that affirm the identities of all students, faculty, staff, and community members; and

Whereas, the South Orange County Community College District (SOCCCD) is committed to creating inclusive learning and working environments that honor diversity, promote cultural awareness, and support student success across Saddleback College, Irvine Valley College, and districtwide operations; and

Whereas, the District's Inspire 2035 strategic plan emphasizes equity, inclusion, student success, and a sense of belonging as core priorities, and Black History Month aligns with and advances these commitments by celebrating the histories, contributions, and excellence of Black communities;

Whereas, Black History Month provides an opportunity for reflection, education, dialogue, and engagement that deepens understanding of the ongoing contributions and challenges of Black communities, while reinforcing the District's values of equity, justice, and belonging; now, therefore,
